Welcome to Kolkata!

Kolkata or Calcutta (City of Joy) is the capital of the Indian state of West Bengal. Located on the east bank of the Hooghly river, it is the principal commercial, cultural, and educational centre of East India, while the Port of Kolkata is India's oldest operating port as well as its sole major riverine port. As of 2011, the city had 4.5 million residents; the urban agglomeration, which comprises the city and its suburbs, was home to approximately 14.1 million, making it the third-most populous metropolitan area in India. As a growing metropolitan city in a developing country, Kolkata confronts substantial urban pollution, traffic congestion, poverty, overpopulation, and other logistic and socio-economic problems.

In the late 17th century, the three villages that predated Kolkata were ruled by the Nawab of Bengal under Mughal suzerainty. After the Nawab granted the East India Company a trading license in 1690, the area was developed by the Company into an increasingly fortified mercantile base. Nawab Siraj Ud-Daulah occupied Kolkata in 1756, and the East India Company retook it in the following year and by 1772 assumed full sovereignty. Under the East India Company and later under the British Raj, Kolkata served as the capital of India until 1911, when its perceived geographical disadvantages, combined with growing nationalism in Bengal, led to a shift of the capital to New Delhi. The city was a center of the Indian Independence Movement; it remains a hotbed of contemporary state politics. Following Indian independence in 1947, Kolkata—which was once the centers of modern Indian education, science, culture, and politics—witnessed several decades of relative economic stagnation. Since the early 2000s, an economic rejuvenation has led to accelerated growth.

As a nucleus of the 19th and early 20th century Bengal Renaissance and a religiously and ethnically diverse center of culture in Bengal and India, Kolkata has established local traditions in drama, art, film, theatre, and literature that have gained wide audiences. Many people from Kolkata—among them several Nobel laureates—have contributed to the arts, the sciences, and other areas, while Kolkata culture features idiosyncrasies that include distinctively close-knit neighborhoods (paras) and freestyle intellectual exchanges (adda). West Bengal's share of the Bengali film industry is based in the city, which also hosts venerable cultural institutions of national importance, such as the Academy of Fine Arts, the Victoria Memorial, the Asiatic Society, the Indian Museum, and the National Library of India. Though home to major cricketing venues and franchises, Kolkata differs from other Indian cities by giving importance to association football and other sports.

Climate

Kolkata is subject to a tropical wet-and-dry climate and the annual mean temperature is 26.8 °C (80.2 °f); monthly mean temperatures are 19–30 °C (66–86 °f). Summers (March–June) are hot and humid, with temperatures in the low 30 °C; during dry spells, maximum temperatures often exceed 40 °C (104 °f) in May and June. Winter lasts for only about two-and-a-half months, with seasonal lows dipping to 9–11 °C (48–52 °f) in December and January. May is the hottest month, with daily temperatures ranging from 27–37 °C (81–99 °f); January, the coldest month, has temperatures varying from 12–23 °C (54–73 °f).

Rains brought by the Bay of Bengal branch of the south-west summer monsoon lash Kolkata between June and September, supplying it with most of its annual rainfall of 1,582 mm (62 in). The highest monthly rainfall total, 306 mm (12 in), occurs in August. The city receives 2,528 hours of sunshine per year, with maximum sunlight exposure occurring in March.

Local Lingo

Bengali, the official state language, is the dominant language in Kolkata. English is also used, particularly by the white-collar workforce. Hindi and Urdu are spoken by a sizeable minority.

Accommodation

Kolkata is a place where one can find accommodation facilities suiting everybody's budget. It is advisable to be careful when seeking the services of brokers, as they can take undue advantage of new comers to Kolkata. It is habitual to pay 5-10 months rent as advance. Please take the advice of your seniors before fixing accommodation and food.

Welcome to Pune

Popularly known as the cultural capital of Maharashtra and Oxford of the East, Pune is the second largest city in the state of Maharashtra after Mumbai. Pune is known to have existed as a town or political center of the Maratha Empire since 847 AD and has developed since then into a metropolis well known for its high educational facilities, cultural heritage and relative prosperity.

Thus, Pune is one of the historical cities of India with a glorious past, an innovative present and a promising future.

By the eighth century, an agricultural settlement ruled by Rashtrakuta Dynasty known as Punnaka existed where Pune is today. Later, it was ruled by the Ahmadnagar Sultanate until being annexed by the Mughals in the 17th century. The Maratha rulers like Bhosale Chhatrapati and Rajarshi Shahu along with their Peshwas (Prime Ministers) oversaw the development of Punawadi which then became an important political center of the Maratha Empire. Prominent social reformers and freedom fighters lived here and hence it is also primarily associated with the struggle for Indian independence in 1875 – 1910 when the city became a major center of agitation and social reforms.

Spread over 450 square kilometers, it is located on western margin of the Deccan plateau on leeward side of the Sahyadri mountain range, which forms a barrier from the Arabian Sea. Thus it's a relatively hilly city with a pleasant climate.

With population close to six million, Pune is sixth largest metropolis in India. From the pre-Independence period till date, Pune as a city has played an important role in freedom struggle, shaping of the educational system and social reform movement.

Climate

Pune has a tropical wet and dry climate with average temperatures ranging from 20 to 28 °C. Hottest months here are from March to May. Winter begins in November lasting till January when the daytime temperature hovers around 28 °c while night temperature is below 10 °c. It receives its seasonal rainfall from south-west monsoon winds that last from June mostly extending to October with moderate rainfall and temperatures ranging from 22 to 28 °c.

Local Lingo

Official language in Pune is Marathi since the city has a predominantly Marathi-speaking population and the form of Marathi spoken in Pune is held as the standard form of the language. Besides Marathi, other languages like Hindi, Gujarati and English are also understood and spoken widely.

Accommodation

If one is looking for accommodation in Pune, than the place has no dearth of hotels, hostels and rented flats available as to suit varied budgets.

Welcome to Coimbatore!

Coimbatore also known as Kovai, is the second largest Metropolitan city and urban agglomeration after Chennai in the Indian state of Tamil Nadu. Coimbatore is the 'Textile Capital' of Tamil Nadu. It is one of the fastest growing Tier-II cities in India and a major textile, industrial, commercial, educational, IT, healthcare and manufacturing hub of Tamil Nadu. Other important industries include software services. It is the capital city in the Kongu Nadu region and is often been referred to as the Manchester of South India. The city is located on the banks of the Noyyal river surrounded by the Western Ghats and is administered by the Coimbatore Municipal Corporation.

Coimbatore has been ranked 4th among Indian cities in investment climate by CII and ranked 17th among the top global outsourcing cities by Tholons. Coimbatore is the fourth largest metropolis in South India. Coimbatore city is administrative capital of Coimbatore district.

Climate

The temperature in Coimbatore is very moderate all through the year. However, the best time to visit the place is from September to March. Winters (December to February) are not very cold with the minimum temperature rarely touching 15 °c and maximum never crossing 33 °c.

Summers (March to May) are bit hot touching about 40 °c but the light cool wind flows through the city, makes the season pleasant. Travelers for trade frequently visit during this season.

Monsoons (June to August) are strong here due to the presence of mountain pass. Tourists preferably avoid rainy days.

Local Lingo

Tamil and English are the two languages used almost universally in Coimbatore. The rising number of North Indians in the city has also ensured the rising popularity of Hindi among the populace. Even though a good knowledge of English should be enough to go about the city there are a few common words and phrases you may need to interact with people.

Traveling to Coimbatore:

By Air

Coimbatore Airport is situated at a distance of 12 km from the heart of the city and is well connected with the key cities of India, such as Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, Chennai and Kozhikode (Calicut). An international flight, to Sharjah (UAE), also operates from here. From the airport, you can either hire a taxi or take an auto rickshaw to the main city.

By Road

Coimbatore is a place that is easily accessible by road. The State Transport Corporation and a lot of private operators operate regular bus services between Coimbatore and all the major cities of Tamil Nadu and also the states of Kerala and Karnataka. If you want to drive down to the city, keep in mind that NH47 is the main highway that connects it with the rest of India.

Accommodation

Coimbatore is a place where one can find accommodation facilities suiting everybody's budget. It is advisable to be careful when seeking the services of brokers, as they are known to take undue advantage of new comers to Coimbatore. It is habitual to pay 5-10 months' rent as advance. Please take the advice of your seniors before fixing accommodation and food.

Cognizant locations: Mountain View Campus (Inside Kumaraguru College), Mountain Midst Campus (Inside KGISL) & CCC Campus in SEZ, Keeranatham Village. All three offices are in Saravanampatti.

Training locations: KCT Tech Park, Saravanampatti

How to reach there: (Reach Saravanampatti from anywhere and it's a five minute drive to KCT. Local taxi and auto will be able to help.)

- By Bus
- By personal transport
- By Auto rickshaw

Some Important Tips

1. While hiring an auto it is advisable to seek the advice of your host or a local about the approximate charges for the place. It is better to fix a flat rate with the auto rickshaw driver as most autos do not run on meters.
2. Be prepared to pay extra during rains.
3. Feel free to approach the traffic policeman and police officers close by. They provide accurate information about bus routes, auto fares etc. Besides, auto drivers tend to be reasonable when the police is introduced as an arbitrator.
