Information for Employers

This Form P46 should only be completed where an employer has not received a form P45 from a new employee.

What to do when a new employee commences employment and does not provide a Form P45

- Complete this form P46 and forward it to your Revenue office. Revenue will issue a tax credit certificate (P2C) or a tax deduction card to you as soon as possible.
- If a pay day occurs before receipt of either document you should operate PAYE on the emergency basis.
  The current emergency tax rates are published on the Revenue website at www.revenue.ie/revguide/emergencybasis.htm

Where the new employee does not provide his/her PPS number

Where the new employee holds a PPS number but has mislaid it, advise the individual to contact his/her Social Welfare Local Office to try to trace the PPS number.

If the new employee does not hold a PPS number he/she should be advised to call in person to any Social Welfare Local Office and ask for Leaflet SW100 to apply for a PPS number. When he/she has been allocated his/her PPS number from the Department of Social and Family Affairs, he/she should complete the Revenue Form 12A and send to his/her Revenue office. The Form 12A is available from www.revenue.ie/forms/form12a.pdf
